Jesus did not anoint the head of the disciples - he did not call for a bottle of Holy Oil - he did not ask them to get in a Prayer Line. This may not be apparent at first, but think about it - your feet carry a enormous load. When the Holy Spirit prompts us to give, we should discern that spirit and when we are at peace with the decision, give responsibly. Thursday of the First Week in Lent 2019 Saint Matilda There are two ways to look at God, and they represent the contrasting approaches of religious men and women to the virtue we call “fear of the Lord.” The first way, which we associate with, interestingly ... Quite a few theologies take humanity as their starting point. I can understand why, since theology is human work—our human reflections on the big issues of life. However, I have chosen to pick up the doctrine of humanity (“theological anthropology”) only in this seventh essay. I believe our reflections up to now have given us... - Jonah, Habakkuk, And Malachi : Living Responsibly
