

Download Life Beyond School: A Planning Guide For College Graduates

Transition: Planning for Life Beyond High School. Transition is the official term for the coordinated, systematic set of activities that creates a bridge between school and adult life for students with disabilities age 14 to 21. College Planning. Informed and organized. Whether you are uncertain about going to college or you just need some reassurance you're on the right track, there are numerous good reasons to go to college. Transitioning to Life After High School After 12th grade, individuals with learning and attention issues will only receive accommodations^ in college or the workplace if they disclose their disabilities. But many students leave high school without the self-awareness, self-advocacy skills or self-confidence to successfully navigate their new independence and seek... Admissions. Thank you for your interest in Central Christian School. Call for an Educational Consultation to speak with a knowledgeable administrator, who will provide you with the information needed to enroll your student at Central Christian School. - Life Beyond School: A Planning Guide For College Graduates